- On 24 January 1952 there was a conference at the DDR Office for Reparations in East Berlin. The purpose of the conference was to answer complaints from the SAG Transmasch Headquarters regarding the slowness of raw material supply shipments to Transmasch factories working on reparations contracts. Those present at the conference were:

From the Office of Reparations:

(Fnu) Schober, deputy to Weinberger, the chief of the Office of Reparations.

Wange, chief of the section for "Kontingentierung", age 23, very active in the FDJ.

Schumacher, an Oberreferent.

Joiko, who works on "Kontingente".

SAG personnel:

Galanov and Ageyev from the SAG Headquarters in Berlin-Weissensee.

Adrianov from the Transmasch Headquarters in Leipzig.

Pohlentz, chief of supply for SAG AMO (German).

Sonneck, representative for Transmasch (German).

The Office for Reparations agreed at this conference to speed up its processing of the raw material requisition forms (Kontingentscheine) submitted by the SAG's.

- On the occasion of the above meeting, Schumacher, noted above, remarked that the Office of Reparations had 400 reparations orders on file for 1952, of which the Office had so far processed 362. The remaining 38 orders are to be issued to DDR factories in the next four weeks.
